

SINGAPORE TERRORISM THREAT ASSESSMENT REPORT 2021

The terrorism threat to Singapore remains high. There is currently no specific nor credible intelligence of an imminent terrorist attack against Singapore.

Threats to Singapore

1 Self-radicalisation

Stems primarily from self-radicalised individuals influenced by extremist materials online.

Since 2015, 54 individuals were dealt with under the Internal Security Act for terrorism-related conduct. 44 of them were self-radicalised, of which 14 were dealt with since 2019.

Two attack plots against specific communities at their places of worship in Singapore were foiled in late 2020 and early 2021.

2 Islamist terrorism remains the primary concern.

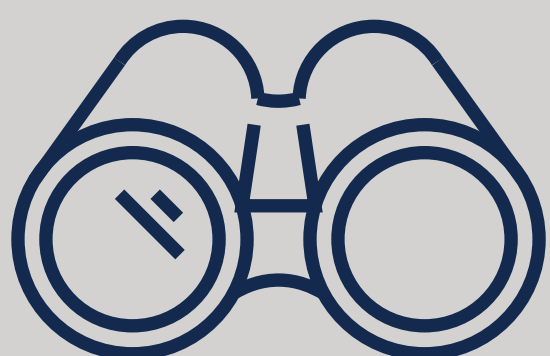

3 Emerging threats such as far-right extremism.

- In December 2020, the first far-right self-radicalisation case was detected in Singapore.

4 External events and developments have spill-over effects, such as import of foreign grievances, hate speech and divisive rhetoric.

We need to maintain vigilance and strengthen the community's preparedness and resilience

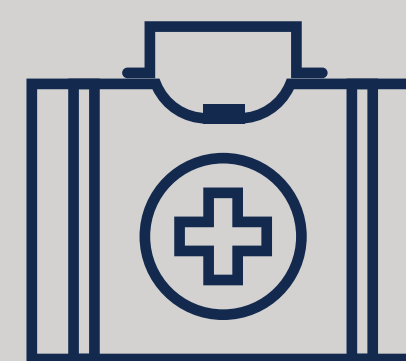

SGSecure - Our community response to terror threat

Remain vigilant

Be prepared in the event of a terror attack

Stay united and cohesive against terrorism and radicalisation

The community plays a key role in our fight against terrorism

The terrorism threat to Singapore remains high. Singapore is vulnerable to attacks against soft targets by self-radicalised individuals using easily available objects.

BE VIGILANT

Look out for suspicious items and behaviour and report them to authorities promptly.

Learn to recognise the signs of radicalisation amongst friends, family and colleagues.

Report signs of radicalisation to authorities early to intervene in time. Contact the Internal Security Department (ISD) at 1800-2626-473 or call the Police at 999.

BE PREPARED

Familiarise with SGSecure advisories such as Run-Hide-Tell and Press-Tie-Tell.

Learn emergency preparedness skills such as CPR/AED, first aid and evacuation skills.

Take part in SGSecure programmes and counter-terrorism drills and exercises in your neighbourhood, workplace or school.

Sign up as an SGSecure Responder via the SGSecure App.

STAY UNITED

Do not speculate or spread rumours. Stay calm and obtain the latest information from official sources.

Care for others and encourage them to return to their daily routines.

Strengthen social bonds with others in your community and learn more about different cultures, races and religious practices.

OUR RESPONSE MATTERS.
WE MAKE SGSECURE.
